
TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART 1: LEARNING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM

1 Reading, Thinking, and Writing Across the Curriculum + 3

Understanding Intersections + 3

Reading, Thinking, and Writing Processes + 4

Connections Among English and Other Disciplines + 5

The Challenges and Rewards of Interdisciplinary Study + 5

2 The Role of the Interdisciplinary Learner + 7

Critical Thinking and Communication Across Disciplines + 7

From Individual Learner to Group Participant to Collaborative Learner + 8

Goals and Preparation + 10

Communication and Respect + 11

Involvement and Discussion + 11

Possibility and Success + 12

PART 2: PROBLEM-SOLVING: AN OVERVIEW

3 Problem-based Learning + 15

An Explanation + 15

Process and Experience + 15

Active Learning + 16

Critical and Creative Thinking + 16

Interdisciplinary Tools + 17

Communication + 17

Classroom and Roles: The De-centered Classroom + 17

The Instructor's Role + 17

The Students' Role + 18

The Importance of Communication and Collaboration + 18

Communicating with Texts + 18

Close Reading of an Article • 19

Communicating with Oneself • 20

Communicating with Others • 20

Techniques for Textual Analysis • 21

4 Your Problem-solving Group • 23

Opening Up Lines of Communication • 23

Involvement versus Participation • 24

Discussion versus Response • 24

Establishing Group Guidelines • 25

Group Guidelines Examples • 26

Common Group Expectations • 27

Developing a Plan of Action • 28

5 Examining the Problem • 31

Persuasive Writing • 31

The Problem-Solving Process • 32

Critical Reading: Problem and Supporting Materials • 33

Understanding the Problem • 33

Identifying Problem Requirements • 33

Recognizing Stages • 35

Clarifying Terminology • 36

Problem #1: The Problem of Education • 38

6 The Problem-solving Process • 43

Critical Thinking • 43

Active Learning • 44

Communication: "What do you know?" • 44

Discussing Ideas • 45

Strategizing • 46

Exploration: "What do you need to know?" • 47

Analyzing Information • 47

Researching Possibilities • 48

Taking Chances • 51

Understanding: "What have you learned and what more do you need to learn?" • 51

Synthesizing Information • 51

Identifying and Filling In Holes • 52

Positioning: "What do you believe, and how will you present your argument?" • 53

Forming a Position and Taking a Stance • 53

Engaging an Audience • 54

7The Problem Write-up • 57

Critical Writing • 57

Sharing the Workload • 57*Writing Together* • 59*Communication, Exploration, Understanding, and Positioning* • 59

Communication • 59

Exploration • 60

Understanding • 61

Positioning • 62

Earning Applause • 63*Acknowledging Assistance* • 638*Large Group Discussion • 67

Communication • 67

Leading Discussion • 68*Sharing the Stage* • 68*Assuming a Position* • 69*Acknowledging Alternatives* • 70*Inviting Possibility* • 719*From Group Work to the Individual Writer • 73

Writing as a Process of Discovery • 73

Applying Critical Processes Across Disciplines • 74

Reading, Thinking, and Writing • 74

Writing Assignments • 75The Writer's Toolbox • 76*PART 3: PROBLEM #2: REFINING PRACTICE AND MAKING CHOICES*10*Revisiting Group Work • 83

Critical Reminders • 83

Roles, Policies, and Organization • 85*Understanding the Problem and Establishing a Problem-Solving Plan* • 85

Exploring with Direction • 86

Analyzing and Synthesizing as a Group • 86

Refining Your Focus and Fine Tuning • 87

Problem #2: The Problem of Perspective • 88

11 From Group Work to the Individual Writer • 93

Gaining Perspective Through Knowledge • 93

Understanding the Assignment • 94

Identifying Your Approach • 95

Exploring with Direction • 95

Analyzing and Synthesizing • 96

Refining Your Focus • 97

The Writer's Toolbox • 98

PART 4: PROBLEM #3: NEGOTIATING AMONG MULTIPLE RESOURCES

12 Revisiting Group Work • 105

Gauging Problem Complexity • 105

Gauging Group Understanding of the Problem • 106

Establishing a Problem-Solving Plan

Organization and Roles • 106

Managing Resources • 106

Analyzing and Synthesizing • 107

Refining Your Focus • 109

Documentation • 110

Examples of Direct Quotation, Paraphrasing, Summary, Visual Evidence and the Works Cited Page • 111

Problem #3: The Problem of Comprehending Violence • 116

13 From Group Work to the Individual Writer • 121

Understanding the Assignment • 121

Understanding the Reading and Resources • 122

Understanding Your Approach: Managing Resources, Analyzing and Synthesizing,

Revising, and Proofreading Carefully • 122

The Writer's Toolbox • 123

PART 5: PROBLEM #4: INCORPORATING RESEARCH

14 Revisiting Group Work • 133

Gauging Problem Complexity and Group Understanding • 133

Developing a Research Plan • 134

Locating Resources • 134

Concept Mapping Towards a Tentative Focus Diagrams • 136

Selecting Search Terms • 139

Limiting Searches in Databases • 140

Understanding Reputation and Considering Reliability • 142

Evaluate Your Sources • 143

Incorporating Outside Material into the Problem-Solving Process • 145

Documentation • 145

Problem #4: The Problem of Corporatization • 148

15 From Group Work to the Individual Writer • 155

Understanding the Assignment • 155

Understanding Your Approach: Reading and Resources • 156

Understanding Your Approach: Research and Documentation • 157

The Writer's Toolbox • 158

PART 6: REFLECTING ON YOUR LEARNING PROCESS

16 Your Development as a Learner • 165

Making Learning Meaningful • 165

Critical Reading, Thinking, and Writing • 165

Where Did You Begin? • 166

Where Are You Now? • 166

Applying Your Learning Process to the Academic, Professional, and Personal World • 167

Claiming the Power to Communicate • 170

READINGS

The Road to Rome by Jonathan Kozol • 173

How to Not Teach by Derrick Jensen • 189

Learning to See by Barry Lopez • 195

Understanding Comics by Scott McCloud • 207

The Sky is Falling by Art Spiegelman • 247

In the Shadow of No Towers • 251

Shadow Boxing by Aaron Rosen • 253

McDonaldization by George Ritzer • 257

Excerpt from Fast Food Nation by Eric Schlosser • 279

APPENDICES

Glossary • 289

Web Links • 293

References • 297

