

Table of Contents

1

PRACTICING RHETORIC 1

Why Rhetoric Is Important in My Writing by Elizabeth Jimenez	1
Through Praxis , Theory Becomes Action	2
Become Part of the Academic Conversation	3
Collaborative Groups Help Students Enter the Academic Conversation	5
Rhetoric and Argument	6
Rhetoric and Power	9
Selected Definitions of Rhetoric	10
Activity 1.1 Historical Usage of the Word “Rhetoric”	11
Activity 1.2 Contemporary Usage of the Word “Rhetoric”	11
Visual Map of Meanings for the Word “Rhetoric”	11
Activity 1.3 Explore the Visual Map of the Word “Rhetoric”	12
Rhetorical Argument	12
Reading 1.1 “Violent Rhetoric and Arizona Politics” by Nathan Thornburgh	14
Activity 1.4 Write a Summary of “Violent Rhetoric and Arizona Politics”	17
Activity 1.5 Analyzing “Violent Rhetoric and Arizona Politics”	17
Reading 1.2 “The Sleepover Question” by Amy Schalet	18
Activity 1.6 Analyze “The Sleepover Question”	20
Why Study Rhetoric?	21
Reading 1.3 “San Ysidro Shooting Survivor Lives His Dream of Being a Cop” by Janine Zuniga	22
Activity 1.7 Consider a Profile	24
Reading 1.4 “Memories of McDonald’s Rhetorical Actions 20 Years Later”	25
Activity 1.8 Blogging and Responding to Blogging	26
Activity 1.9 Write about Everyday Arguments	27
Encountering Visual Rhetoric	27
Activity 1.10 Write a Caption for a Photo or a Pair of Photos	28
Rhetorical Arguments Stand the Test of Time	28
Reading 1.5 “Text of the Gettysburg Address”	29
Activity 1.11 Paraphrase the Gettysburg Address	30
Activity 1.12 Keep a Commonplace Book	30
Activity 1.13 Create Your Own Blog	31

2

RESPONDING RHETORICALLY 33

Why I Annotate Readings by Lauren Connolly 33

Thinking Critically, Reading Rhetorically 34

Reading 2.1 “In Sex-Crime Cases, Credibility a Thorny Issue”

by Paul Duggan 35

Activity 2.1 Analyze a Text 38

Rhetoric’s Visual Heritage and Impact 38

The Rhetorical Triangle 40

Activity 2.2 Apply the Rhetorical Triangle 41

Reading 2.2 “President Barack Obama on the Death of Osama bin Laden” 41

Activity 2.3 Evaluate the President’s Speech 45

Activity 2.4 Research Reactions to President Obama’s Speech 45

Reading 2.3 “The Lexicon” by Charles McGrath 46

Activity 2.5 Develop a Lexicon 47

Ways of Reading Rhetorically 47

Reading 2.4 “The Web Means the End of Forgetting” by Jeffrey Rosen 50

Activity 2.6 Discuss “The Web Means the End of Forgetting” 56

Activity 2.7 What Is the Current State of Identity Protection in Social Networking Sites? 56

Close Reading of a Text 56

Responding to Oral and Visual Media 59

Reading 2.5 “Let’s Roll” by Neil Young 61

Activity 2.8 Respond to Song Lyrics 63

Activity 2.9 Consider a Song as an Argument 63

Responding to Visual Rhetoric 63

Activity 2.10 Interpret Advertisements 65

Activity 2.11 Find Advertisements with Effective Arguments 66

Interaction between Texts and Images 66

Reading 2.6 “All-Star Rockers Salute Buddy Holly” by Andy Greene 67

Activity 2.12 Analyze Interaction between Texts and Images 68

Activity 2.13 Write a Summary 68

Reading 2.7 “How to Make a Kindle Cover from a Hollowed Out Hardback
Book” by Justin Meyers 69

Activity 2.14 Write and Illustrate Instructions 72

Activity 2.15 Create Your Own Blog 72

Activity 2.16 Write in Your Commonplace Book 72

3

ANALYZING RHETORICALLY 73

Analyzing Arguments Improves My Writing by Eurydice Saucedo	73
Discover the Kairos—The Opening for Argument	74
Use Kairos to Make Your Own Argument	74
Reading 3.1 “I Have a Dream” by Martin Luther King, Jr.	76
Activity 3.1 Use Microsoft’s Comment Feature to Annotate a Text	80
Activity 3.2 Discuss “I Have a Dream”	81
Activity 3.3 Identify the Kairos	81
Activity 3.4 Analyze an Audience	81
Aristotle’s Persuasive Appeals	82
Arguments from Logos	83
Reading 3.2 “Why Executions Should Be Televised” by Zachary B. Shemtob and David Lat	83
Activity 3.5 Analyze an Argument from Logos	86
Deductive Reasoning	86
Inductive Reasoning	87
Activity 3.6 Identify Deductive and Inductive Reasoning	88
Logical Fallacies	88
Activity 3.7 Identify Logical Fallacies	92
Activity 3.8 Create Examples of Logical Fallacies	92
Arguments from Pathos	93
Reading 3.3 “People for Sale” by E. Benjamin Skinner	93
Activity 3.9 Analyze an Argument from Pathos	98
Arguments from Ethos	98
Reading 3.4 “Alien Life Coming Slowly into View” by Ray Jayawardhana	99
Activity 3.10 Analyzing an Argument from Ethos	101
Combining Ethos, Pathos, and Logos	102
Activity 3.11 Writing about Ethos, Pathos, and Logos	103
Photos Heighten Ethos or Pathos	103
Activity 3.12 Logos Activity: Write a Letter to the Editor	104
Activity 3.13 Pathos Activity: Portray an Emotion in a Collage	105
Activity 3.14 Ethos Activity: Create a Professional Facebook Page	106
Activity 3.15 Write a Rhetorical Analysis	106
Activity 3.16 Write on Your Blog	107
Activity 3.17 Write in Your Commonplace Book	107

4

INVENTING RHETORICALLY 109

- How I Do Invention by Adam Webb 109
- Aristotle's Classification of Rhetoric 110
 - Artistic Proofs 110
 - Inartistic Proofs 110
- The Five Canons of Rhetoric 111
- The Modern Writing Process Overview 112
 - Prewriting (Inventing) 112
 - Drafting 113
 - Revising 113
 - Editing and Polishing 113
- Activity 4.1 Compare the Five Canons of Rhetoric and the Modern Writing Process 114
- Stasis Theory Identifies Critical Point in Controversy 115
- Using Stasis Questions 118
- Stasis Theory and Kairos 120
 - Activity 4.2 Identify the Defense in a Television or Film Courtroom Drama 121
 - Activity 4.3 Use Stasis Theory to Explore Your Topic 121
 - Activity 4.4 Evaluate a Public Debate 121
 - Activity 4.5 Use Stasis Theory to Analyze a Case 122
 - Reading 4.1 “he $300 House: A Hands-On Lab for Reverse Innovation?” by Vijay Govindarajan 123
 - Reading 4.2 “Hands Off Our Houses” by Matias Echanove and Rahul Srivastava 125
 - Reading 4.3 “The $300 House: A Hands-On Approach to a Wicked Problem” by Vijay Govindarajan with Christian Sarkar 127
 - Reading 4.4 “A $300 Idea that Is Priceless” from Schumpeter, a column in the Economist 130
- Other Invention Strategies 133
 - Freewriting 133
 - Invisible Freewriting 133
 - Focused Freewriting 134
 - Listing/Brainstorming 134
 - Clustering 134
 - Organizing or Arranging 134
 - Reading 4.5 “Take a Leap into Writing” by Craig Wynne 135
 - Activity 4.6 Consider “Take a Leap into Writing” 137

Table of Contents

Activity 4.7 Focused Freewriting	137
Activity 4.8 Begin with What You Know	137
Expand Your Personal Knowledge through Observation	138
Activity 4.9 Observation Exercise	139
Reading 4.6 “BMW 1M: Miniature, Mighty and Miles of Fun” by Dan Neil	139
Activity 4.10 Find Artistic and Inartistic Proofs in a Reading	143
Activity 4.11 Write a Product Review	144
Activity 4.12 Write on Your Blog	144
Activity 4.13 Write in Your Commonplace Book	144

5 WRITING RHETORICALLY 145

How I Write by Matthew Harding	145
Through Writing, Enter the Conversation	146
Organize Your Essay	146
Write a Thesis Statement	148
Compose an Introduction	149
Reading 5.1 “The Truth about Writer's Block” by Judith Johnson	152
Activity 5.1 Discuss “The Truth about Writer’s Block”	155
Combine Your Ideas with Support from Source Materials	155
Support Your Thesis	156
Answer Opposing Arguments	156
Vary Your Strategies or Patterns of Development	157
Write a Conclusion	157
Consider Elements of Page Design	158
Including Images in Your Projects: Copyright Implications	160
Activity 5.2 Write a Research-Based Argument Paper	161
Reading 5.2 “Film Review: The Hangover (2009)” by Owen Gleiberman	162
Activity 5.3 Discuss Review of The Hangover	164
Activity 5.4 Write a Film Review	164
Activity 5.5 Write an Op-Ed Argument	165
Activity 5.6 Write on Your Blog	168
Activity 5.7 Write in Your Commonplace Book	168

6 REVISING RHETORICALLY 169

How I Revise by Amber Lea Clark	169
Revision Is Part of the Writing Process	170
Begin Revision by Rereading	170

Qualities of Effective Writing	171
Keep It Simple	171
Rely on Everyday Words	172
Use Precise Words	172
Be Concise	173
Use Action Verbs	175
Fill in the Gaps	175
Speak Directly	176
Activity 6.1 When You Really Really Want to Describe Something	178
Remember to Proofread	179
Reading 6.1 “Grammar Girl’s Top Ten Grammar Myths” by Mignon Fogarty	179
Reading 6.2 “Top Ten Distractions for Writers, or Any Job Really” by Sam Scham	182
Activity 6.2 Write a List of Your Writing Habits	184
Gain Feedback by Peer Editing	185
When Your Essay Is Being Reviewed	185
When You Are the Reviewer	185
Independent Reviewing	186
Sample Questions for Peer Review	186
Overall Content	187
Paragraph Development	187
Word Choice and Sentence Structure	187
Activity 6.3 Peer Editing of Sample Student Essay	188
Activity 6.4 Write on Your Blog	195
Activity 6.5 Write in Your Commonplace Book	195

7 RESEARCHING RHETORICALLY 197

How I Do Research by Jane Concha	197
Research Provides Inartistic Proofs	198
You Do Research Every Day	199
Primary and Secondary Research	200
Reading 7.1 “Bringing History to Life with Primary Sources” by Alexander A. Aimes	201
Interviews	202
Activity 7.1 Write a Profile of a Person	204
Secondary Research Sources Expected by Professors	205
Employ Computerized Library Catalogs	208
Types of Computerized Searches	208

Activity 7.2	Locate Books on Your Topic	209
Utilize Electronic Library Resources		209
Activity 7.3	Locate Newspaper and Magazine Articles	210
Find Internet Information		210
Activity 7.4	Find a Journal Article in Google Scholar	211
Evaluate Sources		213
Activity 7.5	Locate and Evaluate a Source	214
Activity 7.6	Evaluate a Website	214
Avoid Plagiarism		215
Activity 7.7	Plagiarism Exercise	216
Reading 7.2	“Anatomy of a Fake Quotation” by Megan McArdle	217
Activity 7.8	Discuss “Anatomy of a Fake Quotation”	220
Activity 7.9	Prepare an Annotated Bibliography	220
Activity 7.10	Compare and Contrast Media	223
Activity 7.11	Write on Your Blog	223
Activity 7.12	Write in Your Commonplace Book	224

A APPENDIX: CITING SOURCES 225

How I Cite by Craig Wynne		225
Evolving Formats of Document Citation		226
When You Have a Choice of Electronic Source Format, Choose a PDF		227
MLA Style		228
Bibliographical Documentation		228
MLA Parenthetical or (In-Text) Documentation		233
APA Style		234
Bibliographical Documentation		235
APA Parenthetical or (In-Text) Documentation		239
Citations		243
Index		245