Table of Contents

1. Understanding Public Communication • 1
   - Communication Models • 2
   - Linear Model of Communication • 3
   - Interactive Model of Communication • 5
   - Transactional Model of Communication • 7
   - Conversation Versus Speech • 8
   - Public Speaking Myths • 10
     - Myth #1: Public Speaking Is a Talent, Not a Skill • 10
     - Myth #2: Speech Is Easy; We Do It All the Time • 11
     - Myth #3: There Is No “Right Way” to Deliver a Speech • 11

2. Speech Anxiety • 13
   - Communication Apprehension • 15
   - Physical Effects of Communication Apprehension • 16
   - Combatting Communication Apprehension • 20
     - Practice, Practice, and Practice • 20
     - Employ Relaxation Techniques • 21
     - Visualize Success • 24
     - Dialogue with the Audience • 24
     - Systematic Desensitization • 25

3. Speaking and Ethics • 27
   - Public Messages Cannot Be Taken Back • 28
   - Ethical Responsibilities of Speakers • 29
     - The Ethics of Choosing a Topic • 30
     - The Ethics of Research • 31
     - The Ethics of Language and Delivery • 34
   - Ethics as an Audience Member • 40
     - Be a Responsible Audience Member • 40

4. Speaking in and to Different Disciplines • 43
   - Contextual Factors • 44
     - External Environment • 44
     - The Speaking Format • 45
     - General Audience Characteristics • 47
   - Speaking in Different Fields and Professions • 47
     - Politics and Speech • 48
     - Speaking for Educators • 49
     - Speaking in the STEM Fields • 51
     - Speaking in Business Settings • 52
     - Speaking in Health Settings • 54
5. Topic Selection • 57
   General Purpose Statements • 58
   Choosing Your Topic • 59
   Narrowing the Topic • 60
   Determining the Specific Purpose • 63
   General Guidelines for Specific Purpose Statements • 67

6. Research and Preparation • 69
   Information Literacy • 70
      Characteristics of Information Literacy • 70
   Types of Information • 72
      Background information • 72
      Unique information • 73
   Places to Research • 74
      Libraries • 74
      The Internet • 76
      People • 78
   Documenting Your Research • 80
      Modern Language Association Style Guide (MLA) • 81
      American Psychological Association Style Guide (APA) • 83
      Chicago Manual of Style (CMS) • 86
      Verbally Attributing Sources • 89

7. Audience Analysis • 91
   Before the Speech • 92
      Direct Observation • 93
      Demographics • 94
   Methods of Analysis during the Speech • 96
      Direct Observation • 96
      Polling the Audience • 98
   Other Ways of Gathering Audience Information • 99
      Contact Persons • 99
      Scientific Surveys • 100
      Personal Interviews • 102

8. Supporting Materials • 105
   Examples • 106
   Statistics • 108
   Testimony • 111
   Guidelines for Using Supporting Materials • 113

9. Context and the Speech Situation • 117
   Basic Components of the Speaking Environment • 119
   Physical Location • 119
10. Outlining • 131

Outlining Principles • 132
- Subordination • 132
- Coordination • 133
- Division • 133

Preparation Outline • 134
Speaking Outline • 136
Other Forms of Speaking Materials • 137

11. Introductions, Conclusions, and Connective Statements • 145

Structure of the Introduction • 146
1. Get the Audience’s Attention • 146
2. Clearly State the Relevance of Your Topic • 148
3. Establish Your Credibility • 149
4. State Your Argument • 150
5. Preview Main Points • 151
6. Transition to the Body • 152

Transitions between Main Points • 153
- Internal Summaries • 154
- Signposts • 154
- Internal Previews • 154

Structuring the Conclusion • 154
- Signal the Conclusion • 155
- Provide a Summary • 155
- Clinch the Speech • 156

12. Reasoning • 157

Types of Reasoning • 158
- Deductive Reasoning • 158
- Inductive Reasoning • 159

Forms of Reasoning • 160
- Reasoning by Cause • 160
- Reasoning by Example • 161
- Reasoning by Analogy • 161
- Reasoning by Sign • 163

Reasoning Fallacies • 163

13. Informative Speeches • 169

Types of Informative Speeches • 170
14. Persuasive Speeches • 181

The Persuasive Process • 182

Stage #1: Issue Awareness • 182
Stage #2: Comprehension • 183
Stage #3: Acceptance • 183
Stage #4: Integration • 184

Types of Credibility • 184
Initial Credibility • 185
Derived Credibility • 185
Terminal Credibility • 186

Types of Persuasive Speeches • 186
Questions of Fact • 187
Questions of Value • 187
Questions of Policy • 188
Refutation • 188

Persuasive Speech Organizational Patterns • 189
Problem-Solution • 189
Problem-Cause-Solution • 190
Comparative Advantages • 190
Monroe’s Motivated Sequence • 190

Adjusting to the Audience during the Speech • 192
Adapting to a Favorable Audience • 192
Adapting to a Neutral Audience • 192
Adapting to a Hostile Audience • 194

15. Ceremonial Speeches • 197

Types of Commemorative Speeches • 198
Eulogies • 198
Table of Contents

- Toasts • 199
- Presenting an Award • 199
- Receiving an Award • 200
- Graduation Addresses • 201

Characteristics of Commemorative Speeches • 202
- Language Differences • 202
- Emotional Quality • 203
- The Importance of Context • 203
- Less Rigid Organization • 203

Guidelines for Commemorative Speeches • 204
- Connect the Audience to the Event • 204
- Use Descriptive Language • 205
- Consider the Audience • 205

16. Presentation Aids • 207

Traditional Aids • 208
- Models • 208
- Charts • 209
- Graphs • 209
- Objects • 211
- Photographs • 211

Technological Aids • 212
- Video • 212
- Audio • 213
- Slideshow Presentations • 213

Guidelines for Using Presentation Aids • 216

17. Language • 219

Language Characteristics • 220
- Arbitrary • 220
- Ambiguous • 220
- Abstract • 221
- Hierarchical • 221
- Spoken vs. Written Language • 222

Structuring Language • 222
- Repetition • 222
- Alliteration • 223
- Parallelism • 223
- Antithesis • 224

Language Devices • 225
- Similes • 225
- Metaphors • 225
- Narratives • 227

Guidelines for Using Language • 227