

Pronoun Agreement

Exercise 3

Directions: First find and underline the antecedent referred to by the pronoun in the parenthesis. Next, circle the correct form of the pronoun.

1. Everyone should have (his, their) own checking account.
2. When one is discouraged, (they, he) should not give up.
3. If a fan pays ninety dollars for a ticket, (he, they) should at least go to the game.
4. Few people can laugh at (his, their) mistakes.
5. When a child gets the proper exercise, (he, they) will sleep well.
6. One of the girls has placed first in (her, their) event.
7. Neither company had (its, their) license revoked.
8. Few of the cars finished (its, their) races.
9. Everybody expects to find more money in (his, their) pay envelope.
10. If a person is to be successful, (he, they) must plan carefully and work hard.
11. If everyone will bring (his, their) own food to the picnic, there will be less confusion.
12. If anyone eats a green apple (you, he) will get a stomach ache.
13. Either of the boys will be excellent in (his, their) job.
14. The brothers occupy (his, their) time by carving wooden figures.
15. If one follows all the steps in installing the app, (they, he) will be amazed.
16. If a few of the insects get into your home, (they, it) will multiply rapidly.
17. Somebody left (his, their) coat here last week.
18. One of the women has a bright future ahead of (her, them).
19. Everyone has to make (his, their) decision soon.
20. Some of the farmers lost all (their, his) crops.