

Subject-Verb Agreement

Exercise 1

Directions: First locate and underline the subject of each sentence. Then circle the correct form of the verb.

1. One of the horses (run, runs) too slowly for the big race.
2. This exam is one of those tests which (is, are) difficult for college students.
3. Mathematics (is, are) an important part of college studies.
4. Across the river near the trees (live, lives) an old man.
5. At Indianapolis the car and the driver (works, work) together.
6. A crate of oranges (cost, costs) quite a bit of money today.
7. Neither the boy nor his sisters (come, comes) to the game.
8. The detective, not his assistants, (studies, study) the case.
9. Good crops (result, results) from hard work and careful planning.
10. (Do, Does) either of the contestants know the right answer?
11. Measles (have, has) almost been eliminated by medical science.
12. Neither the boys nor their father (attend, attends) the meetings.
13. Ideas for television programs (originate, originates) in committee.
14. Across the desert and above the hills (float, floats) white clouds.
15. Harrison Ford and Matt Damon (was, were) present at the banquet.
16. No one except season ticket holders (sit, sits) in this booth.
17. A carefully-checked list of candidates (has, have) been made.
18. The results of the last Gallup Poll (is, are) now available.
19. Neither Betty nor her parents (sing, sings) very well.
20. (Has, Have) either of the teams won many games?